Once Again the Elisons Prove Themselves Friends in Need.

"Come in," called Olive Ellison, as she opened the door and saw Molly and John Suter standing on the porch. "It was mighty good of you to come over. The doctor is taking his evening smoke. You don't mind, do you, Molly?"

"No, indeed," answered Molly heartily. "Why, what is the matter?" exclaimed Olive when she ushered her guests into the parlor. "You look peaked again tonight, Molly, and your husband, too. I'll report you to the doctor." She pinched Molly's cheek.

"We came over to tell you," began Molly breathlessly.

"Shall we come right in here, Gaylord?" Olive stuck her head into the den.

"Sure thing. It's more cozy here," He rose, shook hands and placed seats for his guests.

POISONED HIMSELF AT 40!

Death by slow poison is killing many a man, young in years, who has made the fatal mistake of failing to understand the warnings of kidney trouble.

When your kidneys begin to lag in throwing off natural poisons that accumulate in your body the first warnings come in little twinges, or stiffness across your back and hips. Urination may be too frequent, you may feel "tired" in the morning when you should feel your best.

The best known remedy for these troubles is GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. This remedy has stood the test for more than 200 years since it was first produced in the ancient laboratories in Haarlem, Holland. It acts directly on the kidneys and bladder and gives relief at once, or your money will be refunded. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are imported direct from Holland, and can be had at any drug store. Prices 25c, 50c and $1.00. Accept no substitutes.—Advertisement.

AS TO KILLING OF McLAUGHLIN

Salt Lake, Dec. 13.—The body of George C. McLaughlin, who was shot to death by Ray Thompson at Thompson's ranch, near Malad, Idaho, Thursday afternoon, arrived here at noon yesterday, accompanied by Mrs. McLaughlin. It will be buried in Mt. Olivet cemetery today, following funeral services to be held at the Masonic temple under the auspices of Acacia lodge No. 17, F. & A. M., at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Mrs. McLaughlin was living at 1310 Tenth East street, in this city, when her husband was killed. She went to Malad Friday to bring the body of Mr. McLaughlin here for burial. Mrs. McLaughlin has hardly recovered from the shock of her loss sufficiently to talk freely of the circumstances that robbed her of her husband through the action of a man whom she believed to be a friend of Mr. McLaughlin.

Rejects Report.

Speaking of the tragedy yesterday, however, she expressed a conviction that her husband had been killed as an act of self-defense and that any quarrel between her husband and Thompson could not have been over Dr. T. E. Tewey of the recent Malad notoriety, with Mr. McLaughlin in the role of attacking the character of Doctor Tewey.

"My husband was a strong, athletic man, very able to handle Mr. Thompson in a hand-to-hand encounter. Therefore it is not possible for me to conceive of his having first fired upon Mr. Thompson with a .22 caliber rifle, as reported. Had he been moved to attack in a quarrel, he must naturally have taken advantage of his superior strength by instinct."

"That my husband could not have said anything against Doctor Tewey, I am sure for the reason that they were brother Masons. Mr. Thompson is not a Mason, I am quite sure. Just what the quarrel was about, I am not able to surmise, but I am sure that the truth of it is not yet out. Mr. Thompson and my husband were good friends, so far as I knew when I was in Malad on a visit five weeks ago. They were interested together in the Copper King mining project, near Malad."

Interests in Idaho.
Mrs. McLaughlin explained that she had paid but little attention to the status of the case against Thompson, except that she had learned that he was being held in $12,000 bail, his preliminary hearing to be held at Malad on December 24.

George C. McLaughlin was 42 years of age at the time of his death. He was a native of Kentucky. He came west from Minnesota to Montana about fifteen years ago, and to Salt Lake soon afterward. For some years past he had been interested in Idaho, having gone there first in connection with the building of a power plant. The McLaughlins continued to regard Salt Lake as home, however. Mrs. McLaughlin remaining here most of the time. Mr. McLaughlin was a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and at one time was active in railroading. He belonged to the Masonic lodge at Carlin.

CAPTURED IN THE BAGDAD RETREAT

Berlin, Dec. 12, via wireless to Sayville.—According to private advices from Constantinople, says the Overseas News agency today, "three British battalions of the army that retreated down the Tigris from the city of Bagdad were surrounded by Turkish troops near Kut-el-Amara and surrendered."

"It is expected that the British will retreat southward from Kut-el-Amara in the near future, as their posts to the rear are in danger of being cut off."

CENSORSHIP IN ENGLAND TO END

London, Dec. 12, 8 p. m.—The following official communication was made public tonight:

Sir Edward Grey has arranged that from December 20, 1915, censorship by the press bureau on behalf of the foreign office shall be suspended. This will not mean a change in the provisions of the defense of the Realm act or of regulations made thereunder. They will be binding, as heretofore, but the responsibility of seeing that they are complied with as regards the publication of any newspaper or by any news agency of matter relating to foreign affairs will rest upon the directors of that newspaper or news agency.

As regards matter telegraphed abroad from this country, the responsibility will rest with the senders of telegrams. The censorship of press telegrams from one foreign country to another over British cables will remain unaltered, since the senders of such telegrams are not within British jurisdiction and cannot be proceeded against under the defense of the realm acts.

Nothing in this announcement affects the existing arrangements for the censorship of naval or military matters to which wholly different considerations apply, nor the censorship of other matters, save so far as they relate to foreign affairs.

ITALIANS WIN IN THE HEIGHTS

Rome, Dec. 12, via London, Dec. 13, 2:47 a. m.—The official communication of the war office today says:

In the difficult lofty zone between the Giudicaria and Concel valleys a succession of brilliant offensives have won us the possession of strong heights which assure us the complete occupation of the Bemizzege basin.

The attack, which began December 7, was developed methodically and cautiously, owing to the necessity of meeting the heavy artillery of the Lardaro group and conquering numerous accessory defenses of the enemy.

On the night of December 10 our Alpine infantry arrived near their objectives, the eastern and western peaks of Mount Viesdis, and Mount Mascia, southwest of Nozolo. The following morning after effective artillery bombardments our infantry carried by assault strong enemy positions, taking at the point of the bayonet a successive line of trenches.

SHEEP HAVE RABIES.

Ely, Nev., Dec. 12.—The board of county commissioners held a special meeting here today for the purpose of declaring a quarantine on sheep. A number of the prominent sheep and cattle men appeared before the board and urged immediate action. It is stated that north of here many sheep have been found to have rabies. As the sheep are driven south at this season of the year they are naturally followed by large bands of coyotes. These coyotes it is feared have the rabies and those in position to know, state that while the disease cannot usually be detected in less than nine days, it may make its first appearance in an animal as late as eighteen months after the animal is bitten.

The county commissioners appointed D. B. Bailey as sheep inspector for this county and instructed the sheriff to furnish the inspector with sufficient help to enforce the law with a view of establishing a quarantine here. No sheep will hereafter, or at least until the disease is stamped out, be permitted to cross the county line in any direction.

HOME FROM TRIP.

Pocatello, Ida., Dec. 12.—President Miles F. Reed of the Idaho Technical Institute has returned from an extensive trip throughout the southeastern part of the state. The object of the trip was to arrange some plan whereby the high school course is to be so standardized as to materially lessen the labor of the faculty in first year college work.
